

Reaping The Benefits of Blogging For Brand Authority, SEO, Exposure, And More

MARCH 7, 11:45-1:00 PM

*Geno Quiroz
Marketing Director, MCOOC
Owner, Monterey Premier*

Join us on Wednesday, March 7th for the Marina Chamber of Commerce's First Working Lunch Forum for 2018. This month, Marina Chamber of Commerce's Marketing Director Geno Quiroz will be sharing a series of tips on how to utilize the web for increasing your business exposure and driving more visitors to your website. During this 30 minute program, you can expect to learn the following:

- How to bring your brand to life.
- Increase online exposure.
- Establish brand authority.
- Own your own content and do not let Facebook own it.
- And more.

Where

Veterans Transition Center of Monterey County
220 12th Street, Martinez Hall
(Imjin to 3rd Ave, then 12th St to 11th St)

Cost

Free for Chamber of Commerce members
$5.00 for non-members
(Payments will be accepted at the door. Cash and checks only. We do not accept credit cards for this event)

Info

For more information, visit our website at www.marinachamber.com or email us at info@marinachamber.com